

Dean O'Leary

Guitar & Vocals

Dean has years of experience as a full-time musician. He began his musical journey, at the ripe old age of fifteen, playing guitar and side kick, for his singer/comedian father, Jack O'Leary.

After years of playing with various Sydney cover bands, he joined and performed for over seven years with 'The Zips' show band.

Together they received numerous awards for their achievements in the entertainment industry.

Dean currently fronts his own band, 'Dean O'Leary Band', whom perform regularly around Sydney.

Dean and band are in high demand appearing for corporate functions, hotels, clubs and many other venues in Australia.

He recently toured, playing guitar and backing vocals for 'Maxine Nightingale', 70's Disco icon who visited Australia from USA to tour here in Feb/March 2008.

In 2007, Dean won the ACE award for 'Solo Guitarist/Vocalist'.

Last year in 2008, he won the ACE award for best 'Cover band Duo/Trio'.

Dean has a wide range of material to draw from for any situation, ranging from: Rock, R&B, Jazz, Reggae with great songs from the past and present.

More info on Dean & the band: www.deanoleary.com

